The Maier Museum of Art at Randolph College depends on the generosity of our members and volunteers for crucial support of exhibitions, programs, community outreach, education, collections management, acquisitions, and more!

Our Members...

- Supported the design, printing, mailing of the fall and spring newsletters.
- Funded expenses related to the summer 2016 internship for Randolph College student Rachel Carder ’17, who researched traveling exhibitions and created a prospectus to loan and “travel” the Maier exhibition, Modern Movement: Arthur Bowen Davies Figurative Works on Paper from the Randolph College and Mac Cosgrove Davies Collections.
- Supported the fall 2016 exhibition, Dreams that Money Can Buy (Update), including expenses for visiting artist Hans Haacke.
- Augmented expenses related to the 25th Annual Helen Clark Berlind Symposium in November 2016.
- Sponsored the spring 2017 exhibitions, Investigating Identity: Race, Gender, and Sexuality in Contemporary Art and Prints from the Permanent Collection.
- Augmented expenses related to the spring 2017 Outten Visiting Artist Lecture, including expenses for visiting artist Alison Saar.

Our Volunteers...

- Contributed over 1,397 hours as receptionists, guiding and assisting tours, and participating in training sessions.
- Facilitated “Art & SOL” tours for all of Lynchburg City Schools’ 5th grade. The Art & SOL program, in its 23rd year, is a collaboration with the Lynchburg City Schools’ Partners in Education program. The tours are offered to schools free and are centered around the Commonwealth’s “Standards of Learning” (SOLs).
- Led monthly Arts Fusion discussions for persons in the early stages of Alzheimer’s and related dementias, along with their caregivers. Arts Fusion is in partnership with the Alzheimer’s Association, Central and Western Virginia Chapter. Each hour-long discussion centered on one or two works of art in the Randolph College collection and provided a welcoming space to talk in small groups.
- Provided tours for organizations such as:
  - Lynchburg Liberal Ladies Literary Group
  - Leadership Lynchburg
  - Lynchburg Youth Group Home
  - Daniel’s Hill Neighborhood Center Seniors
  - Jamerson YMCA “Active Adults” group
  - Templeton Senior Center
  - Westminster Canterbury
  - Summit Independent Living

- Beginning in September, docents led a monthly Spotlight Tour (15 minutes, one work of art) or Floodlight Tour (30 minutes, group of works). Tours were not held in November, January, or March due to closing the Museum for College breaks.

Our Members & Volunteers...

were offered discounts on two day trips. In the fall, to the Virginia Museum of Fine Arts for the special exhibition, Fine Art & Flowers. In the spring, to the Taubman Museum of Art in Roanoke to see the special exhibitions, Romare Bearden: Pictures of America and American Impressionism in the Garden.

Maier Members at the $100 Friend level or higher were invited to a private luncheon on September 27, 2016 with Dr. Caroline Campbell, Curator of Italian Paintings Before 1500 and Loans Curator at the National Gallery, London. These members also received an invitation and free admission to the Forte Chamber Music’s A Summer Concert on June 25, 2017.

Several volunteers took advantage of the opportunity to audit one Randolph College art history course each semester at no charge. Course auditing is offered as both a supplement to their volunteer training and as a benefit of volunteering.

Volunteer training and programs were held most Mondays throughout the year. These events included art-related documentary screenings, lectures, workshops, and group discussions.

Despite our efforts to avoid errors, occasionally they occur in producing the Maier Museum of Art at Randolph College’s Honor Roll. If your name has been accidentally omitted or you feel that information was reported incorrectly, please notify us and accept our sincere apologies.
